These Terms and Conditions may be amended from time to time by Netball Queensland.

2. Cancellation, refunds & termination

A registered individual member who has participated or attended the 2021 Netball Queensland/Queensland Firebirds School Holiday Clinics falls is not entitled to a refund of the Netball Queensland capitation fee.

Netball Queensland may change or terminate the school holiday clinics at any time, including (but not limited to) for health and safety reasons or if directed to do so by a government authority. If this occurs, Netball Queensland is not required to provide a refund. Netball Queensland may terminate your participation in the school holidays at any time if it is reasonable and necessary to do so, including if there is any breach of the Code of Conduct and Integrity

In the case of the cancellation of the Netball Queensland/Queensland Firebirds School Holiday Clinics, Netball Queensland will offer:

- Credit for another school holiday clinic

In the event of extreme circumstances and on a case-by-case scenario, Netball Queensland will offer:

- Full refund for registration
 - o Please note: The circumstances of full refund will be subject to the individual circumstances of the participant. Whilst Netball Queensland will try to understand the situation of the participants and their circumstances, a full refund is not guaranteed

3. Covid 19 Cancellation policy

In addition to the cancellation policy above, Netball Queensland has in place a Covid 19 policy. We understand the complexity of this situation and the ever-changing nature of the current times in which we live. The policy protects the cancellation of the event from Government restrictions and if you or one of your family members contracts Covid 19:

3.1 In the event of Queensland Government restrictions cancelling the event:

- Participants will receive a credit for another school holiday clinic within a 12-month period

3.2 In the circumstance that you or one of your family members contracts Covid 19:

- The participant will receive credit for another school holiday clinic within a 12-month period

4. Safety of children and young people

Netball Queensland is committed to promoting the safety of children and young people participating in Netball. Netball Queensland works with Clubs and Associations to establish and maintain a child safe and child friendly environment for Netball. This includes taking all necessary measures to ensure the safety of children involved in Netball. You can find Netball Australia's Child Safety Policy which Netball Queensland has adopted and related documentation on its website (<https://netball.com.au/>).

5. Photographs and videos consent

You consent to Netball Queensland or its Affiliates filming/photographing you or your child's participation (Images) and using/authorizing the use of the Images in any manner we consider appropriate (including marketing, publicity, promotional, preservation, educational and commercial purposes) and you grant a license to use such Content in accordance with the Netball Australia Terms of Use. To withdraw your consent please email community@netballq.org.au

6. Terms and conditions for under 18's

You are the parent or legal guardian of the child or dependent being registered to participate in a Netball Queensland program. (b) You provide permission for your child or dependent to participate in Netball on the Terms and Conditions set out in this document.

7. Registration

In order to register you, your child or dependent for Netball, you must complete the Netball registration form and pay the fee specified in the form. (b) You warrant that you, your child or dependent is the age in which you declare when they participate in Netball, and you agree to provide evidence of age if Netball Queensland requests it. (c) Netball Queensland will not process any registration that is incomplete, unclear, or is not accompanied by the relevant fee.

8. Limitation of liability

You understand that Netball is a limited contact sport and that there are inherent risks associated with participation in Netball, which may result in personal injury (even of a serious nature) to a Participant and that you fully accept and agree to bear those risks. (b) You agree not to bring any claim or proceeding against Netball Queensland for any damage, loss or injury whatsoever that you or a Participant may suffer from participation in Netball. (c) Netball Queensland's liability to you is limited (at Netball Queensland's election) to Netball Queensland repaying any amounts paid by you under these Terms and Conditions to Netball Queensland or supplying or resupplying any Netball services to which you are entitled in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. (d) You authorise Netball Queensland or its Affiliates personnel, in the event of any injury or illness, to obtain on you or your child's behalf and at your expense, any medical assistance, treatment and transportation as deemed necessary

You understand that participants are entitled to certain insurance benefits in connection with Netball. You understand that this insurance covers participants only and does not cover parents, guardians or other people attending any activities that form part of Netball. You accept that the level of cover provided to Participants is the level chosen by Netball Australia, is not intended to be comprehensive cover and does not include cover for expenses claimable from Medicare or the Medicare "Gap", which cannot be insured through personal injury insurance. These items may be claimable through private health insurance and it is recommended that you investigate your personal insurance needs and consider the benefits of obtaining relevant insurance, for example private health insurance and ambulance cover, etc. Questions about insurance benefits in connection with Netball should be directed to Netball Queensland. (f) You acknowledge that there is an unquantifiable risk of transmission of viral illness including COVID-19 associated with participation in Netball and you have considered that risk and your and the Participant's personal circumstances, including any vulnerability that the Participant may have or that of persons whom the Participant will be in close contact with following participation in Netball. You acknowledge that COVID-19 may have very serious health consequences that by the Participant participating in Netball you acknowledge and accept these risks.

9. Compliance with our policies and procedures
