

Free Carparking:

Free carparking can be found in the surrounding residential area of Les Hughes Sporting Complex (marked in orange).

All patrons are reminded to be respectful of peoples property and to ensure that when you park your vehicle, you are abiding by all road rules and not obstructing any driveways or impeding access to property.

Residents within the local vicinity have been advised of the event however if your car is parked illegally they are within their right to call authorities.

Patrons are reminded that all personal belongings should be taken with you, vehicles should be locked at all times and under no circumstances should Children or Pets be left unattended.

Multiple pathways lead into the Complex.

Council parking inspectors may issue fines if rules and regulations are not followed.

No Parking on Baker St, Gilam Cr and De Haviland Dr.

